Jobfind poised to buy WorkDirections Australia

3 December, 2007– Acquisition to give Jobfind a truly national footprint

Jobfind Centres Australia Pty Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary of Angus Knight Pty Limited, today announced the imminent acquisition of WorkDirections Australia from Ingeus Limited, following approval of the transfer of WorkDirections Australia's contracts by the Department of Employment and Workplace Relations.

WorkDirections which incorporates Your Employment Solutions employs approximately 430 permanent staff in Queensland, New South Wales and Victoria. WorkDirections's impending sale as an operating entity provides Jobfind access to complementary sites in locations where previously it had no reach.

In welcoming the new staff and other workers in Victoria, Queensland and New South Wales into the Jobfind Company, Mr Con Kittos, Chief Executive Officer of Angus Knight said:

“We are very excited that WorkDirections is joining with us. This acquisition will give us a combined national footprint of 795 staff in 72 sites servicing 108 locations across Australia enabling us to help train and place many more job seekers into the workforce”, “Jobfind is a leading participant in Australia's very successful Job Network programme. We work closely with businesses to drive down the social and economic costs of employment. In fact, Jobfind has already successfully placed more than 150,000 people into meaningful employment.

“With this acquisition Jobfind Centres Australia will build on its strong reputation as one of the leaders in providing employment services and together we will provide a more comprehensive, one-stop-shop to employers and jobseekers.

“Today’s announcement is proof that we are committed to growing our business to meet the demands of the Australian workforce, Government and employers – and to expanding our reach into the Victorian market.”

Settlement of the acquisition will conclude 4 December 2007.
